Party of Three Hundred En Route West Spend Sunday Here.

Great Audience Listens to Splendid Talks at First Presbyterian Church.

Distinguished divines of the Cumberland Presbyterian church spent a day of sightseeing and worship in Sait Lake yesterday. In the morning the members of the party, which numbers about three hundred, attended worship in the various Sait Lake churches. After luncheon they went in a body to the Tabernacle where they listened with interest to the services and enjoyed the music. In the evening at 7.45 o'clock a raily of the delegates was held at the First Presbyterian church when the "Furtherance and Progress of the Kingdom" was discussed. At 1456 a m, the party boarded their special train and left for Fresno, Cal., where a general assembly will be held on the 18th of this month. sightseeing and worship in Sait Lake yes

Fine Audience Present.

Fine Audience Present.

It was a splendid audience that turned out last night to hear the eloquent divines who held full sway at the new First Presbyterian church on Third East and Ericham street. Short speeches were made by several of the more prominent members of the party. In spirit and word their remarks were very optimistle and gave evidence of satisfactory progress during the past year and hope for the coming one. The meeting was presided over by Judge Settle of the Supreme court of Kentucky, who is moderator of the assembly. He and Dr. W. M. Paden closed the exercises with earnest talks.

Progress of the Kingdom.

Progress of the Kingdom.

Progress of the Kingdom.

The general subject of the evening mass meeting was: "The Furtherance and Progress of the Kingdom". Rev. W. A. Provine of Columbia. Tenn., discussed the rubject, "What Has the Printing Press Done for the Progress of the Kingdom" was the subject of a spirited address delivered by the Rev. W. T. Thurman of Paragould, Ark. Dr. J. S. Gider of Smith's Grove, Ky., considered the subject, "The Home and the Kingdom." In an able and comprehensive manner Dr. W. J. Darby of Evansville, Ind., treated the topic, "Our Educational Institutions and the Kingdom" "The Sunday-schools and the Kingdom" was a subject ably handled by Col. T. H. Perrin of Alton, Ill. Rev. R. L. Phelps of Oklahoma City discussed in a clear and interesting manner "Evangelism and the Kingdom" "Organization and the Kingdom" proved an interesting topic in the hands of Rev. W. J. McDonald of Decatur, Ill. "Civil Government" was ably discussed by Hon. Thomas Cobbs of St. Louis.

Hoesier Preaches in Morning.

Hoosier Preaches in Morning.

"One Thing Thou Likest" was the subject of a powerful sermon delivered by Dr. Widdington of Evansville, Ind., at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. He clearly pointed cut and by striking illustrations impressed the fact that it takes something more than wealth to make a man happy. He also argued that God desired of man something more than a negatively perfect character. Loyalty to truth and sacrifice for the right were held up as desirable virtues that tend to bring and hold men in closer relationship with Jesus Christ. All the remarks made by Dr. Widdington were very apt and healthful. During the morning Dr. Beatty of Westport, Mo. preached at the First Baptist church and Dr. Templeton at the Third Presbyterian church.

Hope to Unite Factions.

Hope to Unite Factions.

From the remarks made by local and visiting Presbyterians yesterday it is evident that one of the interesting questions that will come up at the two General Presbyterian assemblies which will be held this month is: "The Organic Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America." The split between the members of the Presbyterian church occurred in 1810 over certain articles which were then incorporated into the Westminster confession. These articles which then proved so objectionable to the Cumberland members as to make them revolt were revised in 1905, and some questions of dispute were then settled. Before and especially since that time there has been a strong sentiment for union.

Plan for Union.

It was during this year that a plan of union was drawn up by committees appointed by the general ascemblies of the two branches. The plan of union was crafted and reported at the assemblies lest year and has since been favorably voted on by the presbyteries of both organizations. The two-thirds vote required in the U. S. A. church and the majority vote in the Cumberland branch were received. All other constitutional requirements have since been compiled with and at the assemblies soon to be held the vote will be officially declared.

Union Is Assuved.

Union Is Assured.

Just how long it will take to consummate the union is a matter that the assemblies themselves will have to settle. Union, however, it is said, is an assured fact and whether it takes one or two years it will finally be accomplished and thereby the 20,000 members of the Cumberland church, with its 2000 ministers, and the 1,000,000 'aymen of the Northern church will be again united.

Will Meet at Winona.

The general assembly of the Presby-terian church will be held at Winona Ind. May 18. Robert J. Caskey of the First Presbyterian church of this city and Rev. John E. Carver of Ogden will be the delegates from J. tah to this assembly

New Elements of Mystery in Deal

Scheme to Give Utah Light and Railway Company Franchise for Nothing May Come Up Tonight.

That the next move of the L. D. S. Utah Light and Rallway company in its 000, and give next to nothing in return, involves several new elements of mystery is evidenced by a little circumstance that occurred Saturday afternoon im-mediately after the return of Councilman Wood from Los Angeles.

Another Draft Prepared.

No sooner had Mr. Wood arrived in the city than he was called up by phone and informed that an entire new draft of the proposed franchise had been prepared, one that involved many new features and which, it is asserted, would be far more favorable to the commorant corporation than the draft of the franchise that has been passed upon by the citizeus' committee.

New Coup Contemplated.

In view of this, although Councilmen E, H and A. J. Davis have not yet returned from L5s Angeles, it is believed that the willy and slipnery Fernstrom, and others of the Council known to be favorable to each and every demand which the L. D. S. Utah Light and Ruilway company might make, is contemplating some new coup by which he hopes to defeat the wishes of the citizens who are looking into the question in the light of Justice to all.

Dr. McGee had charge of the Red Cross nurses in the Spansh-American war, later in the Boxer troubles in China, and still more recently in the Russo-Japanese war. As a lecturer Dr. McGee is said to be most interesting and she will likely be greeted by a large audience this evening.

PHILIPPINE WAR VETERANS.

Meeting Held to Arrange for Celebrating Memorial Day.

The Philippine War Veterans held a short meeting in the City Council chamber of the city and county building yesterday afternoon, but owing to the small terday afternoon, but owing to the small attendance the meeting adjourned without making any definite arrangements for the celebration of Decoration day. Another meeting will be held at 2:30 on the Sunday preceding Memorial day at the same place, at which time definite steps for joining in the parade will be made. Mr. W. W. Riter has the matter in charge and he especially desires a large turn-out at the next meeting.

One Can't Comprehend Its Greatness.

So Declares Commander-in-Chief Blackmar of the G. A. R.

State Has the Greatest Mineral Zone of the World; Valleys Are Most Fertile.

"Neither you nor I can at this time comprehend the full greatness of Salt Lake City's and Utah's future." This is the enthusiastic, yet wellweighed statement of Gen. Wilmon W.

Elackmar, commander in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, who spent esterday in Salt Lake, in response to the direct query: "What do you think of Salt Lake City and Utah?" Here Years Ago.

Here Years Ago.

"I visited this city twenty years ago," continued the General, who, with his party, had quarters at the Kenyon, "and naturally I find wonderful changes in the grewth and progress of your city. I am indeed surprised at the evidences of development, prosperity and modernity everywhere manifest, but I want to call your attention to the fact that your giorious climate is not changed; that your grand mountains are still crowned with snow, and that your atmosphere is like an elixir of life.

Greatest Mineral Zone in World.

Greatest Mineral Zone in World. "Another twenty years of growth for this fair city and land and who can now say what wondrous development will be attained? You have the greatest mineral zone of the world, one of the most fertile valleys known and an immense country of almost undeveloped resources directly tributary. Surely Salt Lake is deatined to occupy a position of commanding influence in the West."

Spends Day in Salt Lake.

Gen Blackmar spent the day here, prior to his departure for Ogden, where the session of the department commandery opens teday. He was accompanied by Mra. Blackmar, her sister, Miss Brewer of Boston, and Assistant Adjt, Gen. Dan W. Brown of the Department of Colorado and Wyoming. Adjt. Gen. John E. Gliman, who is also a member of the party, was taken ill last night at Ogden and spent the day there.

On His Way East.

Gen. Blackmar, who for several months past, has been visiting the various department commanderies of the United States, comes here from the Pacific coast, his last stop being at Los Angeles, where, he says, an exceptionally interesting and well-attended camp fire was held. While the General, was in the City of the Angels, he met a number of Salt Lakers, members of the Commercial club excursion, among them Col. E. F. Holmes, whose acquaintance Gen. Blackmar made on the Pacific ocean en route to Japan two years ago.

Object of Visit.

Chief among the objects of Gen. Black-bar's visit to the various department commanderies, is the arousing of interest commanderies, is the arousing of interest in the grand national encampment of the Army, to be held at Denver, beginning September 4 of this year. This session, seys the General, which will of course bring to Denver many thousand old soldiers from all parts of the country, will present an opportunity for visiting Salt Lake City that will be taken advantage of by a large percentage of the veteran fighters.

Quarter Million Veterans.

There are now 250,000 defenders of the flag remaining in Gen. Blackmar's command, few indeed of whom are younger is appearance and action than their chief, for their commander is a man whose brightness of eye, elasticity of step and physical vigor plainly testify to his present ability to assume direction of a strenuous campaign should such an emergency arise.

Given Special Organ Recital.

Gen. Blackmar, who was entertained here by Commander H. P. Burns, Adjtgen W. P. Rowe and other officers of the Utah posts, was driven about the city

Bishop Whitney said that the perwho were circulating stories against the Mormons were people who have evil in their minds. National Element in Music. "The National Element in Music" was the subject of the lecture, and an interesting subject it was Mr. Goldmark traced briefly the slow development of melody, harmony and rhythm; spoke especially of the progress along these lines in Germany within the past two and one-half centuries, and said that modern composers owe more to Germany than to any other nation. National music, said Mr. Goldmark, had its birth in the folk songs of the various peoples, and he showed how important a part these earne folk songs and national airs have played in the crises of nations, and how the tide of many a battle has been turned because the strains of a national air, at a crucial period, roused the soldiers to greater effort.

Miss Agatha Berkhoel assisted Mr. Goldmark last evening and rendered several folk songs in truly charming fashion. The selections included three Italian folk songs, two French, a Danish, a Swedish lullaby, which was, by the way, one of the most beautiful of all; a Norwegian shepherd song, another fine number; a Bohemian, two Russlan and two Hungarian numbers. The selections covered a wide range, some of them being especially well adapted to Miss Berkhoel's rich contralto voice. Mr. Goldmark's accompaniments were well nigh faultless, adding much to the beauty of the songs given by Miss Berkhoel.

Boomers From Salt Lake Objected to Having Church Figure.

Resolutions of the Mormon Priests Were Ruled Out at a Meeting.

Evidently the Salt Lake Commercial dub wishes to act for itself alone when thanking those who have shown tesy to the members, says the Los Angeles Times of the 11th inst. Apostle George A. Smith, on behalf of the visiting Mormon priests, asked that they be ing Mormon priests, asked that they be included in all the club's resolutions of gratitude and appreciation. But the members of the club decided not to let the apostles in.

The club was holding a meeting in the Angelus hotel. One member had made a motion that a committee be appointed to draw up resolutions thanking all those who had extended courtesjes to the Sait Lakers during their visit. Apostle George A. Smith was present. He asked if, although not a member of the club, he could be allowed to speak.

"You will be recognized, Mr. Smith," said Gov. Heber M. Wells, president of the club.

Mr. Smith then put forward his request. "Senator Clark invited the Commercial club and also another body that others and myself have been representing. I understood that some resolution like this would be considered tonight. So I came to ask if that resolution could be drawn up so as to include us also, if it would be in order."

A long silence followed. "That ain't right," murmured a man near the front. Emboldened by this another shouted emphatically, "No!" Still a third got up and was going to make a motion that Apostle Smith's request be denied, but discussion was here ruled out of order.

THE MORGAN SCHOOL CASE.

Editor Tribune:—I see an article copied from the Morgan Mirror in your paper, referring to President D. Heiner and school matters. I am not a Mormon, but I like to see fair play. I am well acquainted with D. Heiner; know him to be a public-spirited man; he takes lead in public affairs both in his church and out. He has spent more money than any two men in Morgan county to educate his children in the colleges of the State.

He took the lead in uniting North and South Morgan school districts two years ago for the purpose of having a central school. The Board of County Commissioners did consolidate the two districts, and known as Morgan school district, and known as Morgan school district, and known as Morgan school district on the records. At a meeting of the citizens and taxpayers duly called for the purpose of selecting a site, the following committee was favored and chosen by majority vote to locate site of central school of Morgan City, committee consisting of the State Superintendent and Superintendents of Weber and Davis counties. Notices were posted to vote on bonds to build central school. North Morgan voted in favor, South Morgan people against bond proposition, thereby defeating object of consolidation. South Morgan then petitioned the County Commissioners to dissolve the district, which was done last September, and recommended by the County Superintendent of Schools.

This spring a move was put on foot to Schools.

This spring a move was put on foot to build a schoolhouse in the center of South Morgan district, a petition presented to the commissioners to unite dis-tricts again, asking North Morgan chil-dren to make all the effort to get to school, which would be from one to two and one-half miles.

A majority of the parents representing four-fifths of the North Morgan school children were concessed to this move. Two tour-fitting of the North Morgan school children were opposed to this move. Two of the commissioners did not think it right to unite the districts under those conditions. I do not believe the commissioners were influenced by anybody, only by a sense of right and justice in the matter.

The accusations against President Het ner are misleading and untrue and should be corrected, as he is an all-around fair and broad-minded citizen, and always has been in favor of good Morgan, Utah, May 12. Salt Lake Photo Supply Co.

Fay Eddy preached on 'The Unitarian and Orthodoxy." This was the beginning of a series of sermons on 'The Unitarian and His Thought Relations.'

Mr. Eddy described the Unitarian as possessing two distinct characteristics. One of these was the attribute of love, which was the only real test of Christianity as exemplified by Jesus. By this Unitarians were united with all the Christian world in the bonds of the church invisible. But they were also characterized by rationalism in its broader and nobler sense, hence were driven into denial of practically the whole doctrine of system claimed by orthodox Christianity.

This standpoint was taken because that system built up around a deffed Christ dying for the sins of the world seems to the Unitarian trying to be loyal to the facts of the universe, a tissue of assumptions not only unprovable, but inherently improbable. So by the attribute of chartiyor love the Unitarian is united to the whole church of Christ, while by the attribute of rationalism he must renounce formulated by the past as containing the essentials of that faith which was potent unto salvation. unto salvation.

Hoop-Skirt Is

May as Well Get Used to the Idea, for the Clinging Skirt Must Go.

"The hoop-skirt is coming "-this is the startling news which is being flashed from Atlantic to Pacific. Startling it is from Atlantic to Pacific. Startling it is to the average person, but the hoop is coming, and we may as well get used to the idea. It seems that Dame Fashion is but a repetition of herself from year to year, and the full dresses now being worn will eventually introduce the hoops of long ago in Salt Lake City. Already they are beginning to be worn in Chicago, London and Paris. That is enough. Now watch the women and see what happens. happens

Not Difficult to Manage.

It is claimed for the hoop that it is not so difficult to manage as is supposed by those who remember the days of long ago. It is made to be so pliable that a woman can sit down without any embarrassing episode. She can also enter a street car without getting stuck. In fact, there is nothing, according to dressmakers, that she cannot do with equal facility and grace as when she wore no hoops. Hoop Possesses Many Virtues.

Hoop Possesses Many Virtues.

The virtue of the hoop is not one, but many. With the extremely full gownstate is full in the skirts—which will be worn this summer, something must be done to make them flare out in a flowing fashion. This something has hitherto been r, great many underskirts, the wearing of which is something of a burden. In the future the hoop will take the place of these skirts—at least some of themand insure the same flowing lines without the burden of so much drapery. Then think of the laundry bills it will save! And there are many other things which the dressmaker will tell you when she wants you to buy one.

Some Disadvantages. Some Disadvantages. But there are some disadvantages which it is wise to foresee. Perhaps the greatest of these is that the young man who admires the young woman must stand off about three feet and gaze at her from a respectful distance. And another thing—will the street cars allow this fashion without a kick? A woman in hoops may be asked to pay two fares, since she takes up room enough for two.

No Use to Object. But what is the use of hunting objecfilms. If the hoop-skirt is approved by fashlon leaders, as it seems to be, it will come to Salt Lake City soon. What woman ever paid any attention to objec-tions when it came to a matter of fash-

E. H. Bellinger, the father of the Judge, was a wagon maker at Maquen. Ill., and went to Oregon with his wife and children in 1847, crossing the plains with a Mormon company led by Brigham Young, and guarded by a company of soldiers.

The Journey which took six months for its accomplishment, was full of danger, as the Indians were troublesome at that time. It was the same year in which Dr. Whiteman was massancred, and at the time when the Columbia River Indians were most hostile.

The Bellinger party parted company with Brigham Young and his followers at Bear Valley and made the rest of the trip alone, arriving in Oregon in safety and settling in Marion county, Oregon, at that time a wilderness.
